

SmartWay software for optimization of energy consumption

Title	SmartWay software for optimization of energy consumption
Technology deployment	Software tool SmartWay is tool for monitoring, analyze, control and optimization of energy consumption. It is complementary with ISO 50 001. Responsible monitoring of your system in real time, reporting, alarming and providing professional support, tool SmartWay will contribute to decreasing of everyday costs and improve your profit. The intention of system form managing the energy is exactly in optimization, due to becoming the economical and efficient system. Main advantages are increasing energy efficiency including passive and active energy efficiency measures.
Keywords	energy managment, energy efficiency, smart meter, smart grid, smart house, demand-side managment
Comments	Main advantages are increasing energy efficiency including passive and active energy efficiency measures.
Regarding Stage of Development	Interested in sale of licence. Product has been put on market as from 01/06/2015.
	Type and size of client:

Possible client	Companies, public institutions (buildings), entertainment spaces (cinemas, sports courts...), households.
More information	SmartWay d.o.o. Glavna 23, Sveti Martin na Muri info@smartway.com.hr 00385 95 814 0654 Croatia